

Transportation Security Administration

In your document that you want to implament some new security procedures will bring on numerous problems for the aviation community. The first one is that the Template program is unavabile for us at this time to make up a securty program.

Aircraft weight on this will apply to.

The third thing is the Ground Security Coordinator requirements.

The Immediate Crew Notification of Threats.